HAACK WINS AGAIN.

Saloon Monopoly Does Not Go in Marion County.

Other Proceedings From the Records in the Various Departments.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT.

In the second suit for a writ of review in the Wm. Haack license case, Judge Boise dismissed the petition, refusing to grant the writ. George G. Bingham, John A. Cason and J. J. Jones appeared for the plaintiff and Holmes & Kellogg and Cook & DePue represented the defendants. Unless an appeal is taken Mr. Haack will now be allowed to conduct his saloon in Silverton without further trouble.

In the suit of Thomas Pomeroy vs. F. D. Woodward and Gilson Myers was decided for defendant, he having paid $140.85 and that being held sufficient. The case has been appealed by Mr. Pomeroy. A trial of Woodward, growing out of the same difficulty, before Justice Johnson resulted in defendant being fined $25 and costs upon a jury verdict for assault and battery on Pomeroy, his father-in-law.

In the Fishburn vs. Hammer estate John Bayne appeared at 10 o'clock and argued a question of costs before Judge Boise.

In the C. J. Mulkey estate a petition to sell personal property was granted. Another suit was begun today by Thos. Pomeroy vs. E. E. Woodward for $107.03 with interest from September, 1895.

JUSTICE COURT.

On Friday before a jury trial, in Justice Johnson's court, W. T. Jenks, representing a local mercantile agency, was given judgment against W. E. Baxter for $7.00, alleged to be due the Capital Lumber Co. for lumber. L. H. McMahon and W. E. Richardson, attorneys for Baxter, filed a motion asking that the verdict of the jury be set aside and they have based this motion upon six instances of error alleged to have been made by the court or the jury in the disposition of the suit. The motion was argued this afternoon, the before mentioned attorneys appearing for the defendant and R. J. Fleming for the plaintiff.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

Crops in the North End.

D. L. Cavanaugh, of St. Louis, one of the substantial farmers of the North end of the county, was in the city today on business. Mr. Cavanaugh says that fall wheat is light and that winter oats are a fair crop in his neighborhood. He also says there are many fields of spring grown wheat that will not be cut on account of shortness and he also says that the hop crop up there will not yield any more bales than last year.

There has been a large amount of wheat (winter wheat) cut for hay on account of a wild vetch or pea, the berry of which is not much larger than a turnip seed, but it climbs up a wheat plant and entirely chokes it out so that it was necessary to cut many fields of wheat for hay. The vetch makes excellent hay. It may be a blessing in disguise. Farmers were at first alarmed, but now that the stock take kindly to it they feel easier.

Clymer is no More.

Official notice was received Monday that Clymer postoffice would be closed July 31. The Salem and Silver creek stages pass there. A note from Thos. Tongue, the congressman, shows that Thos. Short was appointed. He resigned, and it is believed there is some politics in it somewhere.

The present postmaster is Chas. Jamieson and he has held the office for several years, and will continue the service if it is desired. The people of that neighborhood are worked up about the matter, as they cannot well get along without an office.
